Daniel Girardot

Daniel Girardot, in his 30th year as Director of Liturgy and Music at St. Theresa Catholic Church, Austin, TX, is a liturgist, spiritual director, pastoral musician, husband and father of three adult children. He has a B. M. Ed. from U. T. Austin; M. A. Theology in Liturgical Studies from University of Notre Dame, post-graduate studies in Spiritual Direction and is in the project treatise phase of the Doctor of Ministry program at The Catholic University of America. He is an associate member of the Southwest Liturgical Conference Board of Directors. He is a 26 year member of the Liturgical Commission and the Music Committee, and teaches in the Institute for Spiritual Direction, Ministry Formation and the Diacaonal Studies program for the Diocese of Austin. He gives retreats and workshops for parishes and dioceses throughout the U.S. and strives to live every day open to the mysteries and surprises of God.