

Erielle Reshef
KOCO-TV Anchor

Erielle Reshef serves as weekday morning anchor for KOCO 5 News (ABC affiliate of Oklahoma City).

An Oklahoma City native, Erielle returned home to join the KOCO 5 News team in November 2012. Prior to joining KOCO 5, Erielle served as an anchor and reporter for IBA News – Israel's only nationally televised and internationally syndicated English language newscast – based in Tel Aviv and Jerusalem. While at IBA News, Erielle anchored coverage of global news events, politics, sports, finance and culture. She reported live from Israel's border with Gaza during two separate escalations of cross-border violence. Erielle has interviewed many international newsmakers and media personalities during her career including former Israeli President Shimon Peres, U.S. Ambassador and Peace Envoy Dennis Ross, former CIA Director James Woolsey, New York Stock Exchange COO Larry Leibowitz, comedienne Sarah Silverman, Seinfeld actor Jason Alexander, world famous therapist Dr. Ruth Westheimer and ABC World News Anchor David Muir. Erielle graduated cum laude with a double BA from Indiana University in Political Science and Jewish Studies and from the IDC Herzliya in Israel with a Masters in Diplomacy and Conflict Studies.

Erielle serves on the board of the OU School of International Studies. She delivered the keynote address at the school's 2014 convocation.

Erielle has proudly volunteered for the Children's Miracle Network Hospitals, the National MS Society, the Ronald McDonald House Charities, the Regional Food Bank of Oklahoma and other community organizations.

She was voted OKC's Best Anchor by the readers of Slice Magazine and chosen as a Heritage Hall Distinguished lecturer. She served as a Media Training Faculty Member for the Oklahoma County Medical Society Leadership Academy. When she's not on the job, Erielle enjoys speaking to various community groups and volunteering, spending time with her husband Daniel and family, cooking, practicing yoga, and doting on her precious KOCO rescue dog Izador. She also is a devoted OKC Thunder fan! Erielle says she's fortunate to share her passion for storytelling, current events and community service with viewers.
