

Philanthropy Summit 2019 – Programme Overview

WEDNESDAY 15 MAY

9:30am	Optional: Pre-Summit Professional Development Classes / Field Trip / Vu Le Community Event [additional fees will apply for these optional events]
3.00pm	Pre-registration open
4.00pm	Pōwhiri [Te Papa Marae] The registration desk will be closed during the Pōwhiri
4.30pm	Briefings for new Summit attendees and buddy meet ups
6:30pm	Dine arounds (member-hosted dinners at various restaurants) [contact Yvonne if you'd like to host a conversation - yvonne@philanthropy.org.nz]

Philanthropy
Summit 2019

The Future of Trust

*Te pono, te tika, te māramatanga
me te aroha anō o tētehi ki tētehi*

THURSDAY 16 MAY

7.30am	Registration open
9.00am	Mihi Whakatau
9.10am	Welcome
9.30am	Keynote: A panel of futurists on people, planet, money and technology: Shamubeel Eaqub, Dr Tahu Kukutai, Matthew Monahan
10.30am	Morning tea
11.00am	Breakout Sessions – Future Trends in Philanthropy The changing political, social, economic, and natural world, the rapid creation of new wealth, and a greater awareness of how philanthropy can create social change is likely to lead to exciting innovation and new thinking. This set of breakouts identify the current and upcoming changes relevant to philanthropy with concurrent sessions focussed on key areas including: environment; education; technology; economy; media and democracy; and youth.
12.30pm	Lunch
1.40pm	Keynote: Ani Mikaere, Co-director Te Kāhui Whakatupu Mātauranga, Te Wānanga o Raukawa
2.30pm	Keynote: COMING SOON
3.00pm	Breakout Sessions – Building Trust: Engagement and Relationships This set of breakouts look at building and sustaining the relationships and community engagement we need to support good giving. It looks beyond cheque book approaches to relational, hands-on methods and ways that embrace Te Āo Māori, to help organisations and build capability to deliver change. Sessions will include: community-led development; high trust models of contemporary philanthropy; engagement with Māori; impact investing; youth; funding with a women's lens; and more.
4.30pm	Afternoon tea (on the run)
4.45pm	Keynote: Sir Stephen Tindall Founder and Trustee, The Tindall Foundation
5.30pm	Close of Day One
6.30pm – 8.30pm	Direct Capital Cocktail Party and Awards Ceremony [Hosted at Parliament]

*Drafted 7 March 2019 | Please note, we will be updating this programme with new speakers and topics regularly.

FRIDAY 17 MAY

7.30am	Breakfast Sessions
8.45am	Keynote: Vu Le Blogger at NonprofitAF.com
9.30am	Breakout Sessions – The Work We Do
	This stream will dive into the how-to in philanthropy and grantmaking, including governance and operational practices, and other ways of working that might enable us to make bigger differences to social and environmental challenges. Sessions will include: a deep dive session with Vu Le; advocacy; tips on managing your investments; effective messaging; funding for system change; social enterprise; a session for new donors; funding film-making; and more.
11.00am	Morning tea
11.30am	Keynote: COMING SOON
12.15pm	Lunch
1.30pm	Breakout Sessions – Impact
	What difference are we making and how do we know? We'll cover how we tackle complex problems, measure the results and adapt, and philanthropy's role in advocating for change. Sessions will include: a PechaKucha on evaluation; a look at adaptive organisations; tips for individual donors; structuring impact investing; high impact funding that works; social development goals; and more.
3.00pm	Afternoon tea
3.30pm	Keynote: Jennifer Gill CEO, Foundation North
3.45pm	Keynote: Dr Jane Goodall Founder, The Jane Goodall Institute
4.40pm	Closing: Sue McCabe CEO, Philanthropy New Zealand
4:50pm	Poroaki
5.00pm	Finish

*Drafted 7 March 2019 | Please note, we will be updating this programme with new speakers and topics regularly.

We are grateful to the following organisations for their sponsorship of the Philanthropy Summit 2019 and for their longer-term commitment of support for Philanthropy New Zealand

Philanthropy
Summit 2019
The Future of Trust
Te pono, te tika, te māramatanga
me te aroha anō o tētehi ki tētehi