

Peter Gamwell

Ottawa Public Schools

Peter Gamwell has been described as one of the most knowledgeable and thought provoking leaders and presenters on organizational learning and creativity in Canada and beyond. He was the recipient of the 2014 Distinguished Leadership Award from OPSOA (Ontario Public Supervisory Officers Association). OPSOA represents over 300 Directors and Superintendents of Education throughout Ontario, Canada.

Peter's philosophy is simple: the health and prosperity of any organization is directly proportional to the value in, autonomy of and creative rein given to the people who make up that organization.

Drawing on his research in the field and his wealth of practical experience, Peter challenges his audiences to consider fundamental questions that will foster that positive growth, vibrancy and creativity in their organizations.

Peter has advised multiple levels of government, private industry, municipalities and not for profit - as well as the education sector.

He sits on the Board of Directors of the National Creativity Network where he serves with his long-time colleague, mentor and friend Sir Ken Robinson.
