

A BETTER INVESTMENT IN WOMEN'S LEADERSHIP

Inforum Center for Leadership (ICL) is a trusted ally and organizational resource for companies looking to elevate talent and build inclusive, high-performing teams. We stay a step ahead of shifting business and leadership topics so that our programs address the most pressing matters for women and companies.

WHAT SETS US APART

- research-based and outcome-driven curriculum
- decade-long track record of program design and delivery
- 1,500 graduates across industries and professions
- programs aimed at different career stages
- candid conversations with Michigan's top female leaders
- top-notch instructors with credible business experience
- personalized coaching focused on real-world action plans
- practice time between classes to effect behavior change

CLASSES FORMING

A specialized leadership development program for women considered to be emerging talent either early in their careers or after making a significant change.

Class Dates: May 3, May 24, June 14

APPLICATIONS DUE: APRIL 1, 2016

An experiential program for women leaders leveraging the power of reputation, increasing self-awareness, and focusing on authentic leadership presence.

GENUINE
LEADERSHIP
— PRESENCE

Class Dates: March 17, April 21, May 19

APPLICATIONS DUE: MARCH 11, 2016

An action-learning program for women directors and managers designed to hone executive leadership skills, capitalize on emotional intelligence, and increase organizational impact

Class Dates: Spring 2017

For more information and to enroll, visit inforummichigan.org/leadership-programs or contact Deborah Young, Vice President, Inforum Center for Leadership, dyoung@inforummichigan.org