

Outstanding Teaching, Learning and Assessment Workshop

Thursday, 12 July 2018

Jurys Inn, Birmingham

Agenda

8:45	Delegate Registration Refreshments & Networking Opportunity	Refreshments area
9:15	Welcome and introductions, aims and outcomes for the day	Carolyn Medlin, Fairfield Associates Limited
9:30	Common Inspection Framework overview
11:00	Mid-Morning Refreshments Break	Refreshments area
11:20	Working towards outstanding teaching, learning and assessment This session focuses on what constitutes outstanding practice. It includes how Ofsted judges teaching, learning and assessment and personal development, behaviour and welfare based on the current Common Inspection Framework and what this means in your context.	Carolyn Medlin, Fairfield Associates Limited
12:15	Lunch & Networking	Restaurant
13:00	Working towards outstanding teaching, learning and assessment Continued from the earlier session.
14:00	Mid-Afternoon Refreshments Break	Refreshments area
14:20	Working towards outstanding teaching, learning and assessment This session will concentrate on further developing the use of target setting to ensure these are set and owned by apprentices and learners. Please bring along with you an example of a completed individual learning plan or progress review to use during this session.	Carolyn Medlin, Fairfield Associates Limited
14:50	Q&A, Evaluation and Summary
15:00	Close	