

Outstanding Teaching, Learning and Assessment Workshop

Tuesday, 17 October 2017
The Beeches, Bournville, Birmingham

Agenda

9:30	Delegate Registration Refreshments & Networking Opportunity	Refreshments area
10:00	Welcome & Housekeeping	Carolyn Medlin Fairfield Associates Limited
10:15	Common Inspection Framework (September 2015) overview
11:15	Mid-Morning Refreshments Break	Refreshments area
11:30	Working towards outstanding teaching, learning and assessment This session focuses on what constitutes outstanding practice. It includes how Ofsted judge teaching, learning and assessment based on the September 2015 Common Inspection Framework and what this means in your context.	Carolyn Medlin Fairfield Associates Limited
12:45	Lunch & Networking	Refreshments area
13:15	Working towards outstanding teaching, learning and assessment Continued from the earlier session. In particular, the session will concentrate on aspects such as high expectations for learners, further developing the use of ILPs to ensure targets are set and owned by learners and include both task and skills based target; differentiation, stretch and challenge; and assessment for learning. Please bring an example completed ILP to use in this session.	Carolyn Medlin Fairfield Associates Limited
14:45	Q&A, evaluation and summary	Carolyn Medlin Fairfield Associates Limited
15:00	Close	