

Let Prague
Be Your Bridge...

Bridges of Prague

30 bridges and pedestrian bridges in Prague over the Vltava river

The first bridge in the world built with self-supporting welded reinforcements is The Peace Race Bridge in Zbraslav

The highest bridge in Prague with the average height of 40 meters is the Nuselský bridge, located near the Prague Congress Centre

The youngest bridge in Prague is Troja - opened in 2014, there is a message and small objects locked for future generations inside its construction

The longest bridge in the Czech Republic is the Radotínský bridge, which is a part of the Prague Ring Road. It measures 2,055 meters and it is carried by 88 pillars

Charles Bridge

National cultural heritage, in 2017 we will celebrate its 660th anniversary

- The oldest stone bridge in Prague and the second oldest in the Czech Republic
- The first stone was placed by Emperor Charles IV. 9. 7. 1357 at 5:31 (note the sequence of numbers - 13 5 7 9 7 5 3 1, which is not a coincidence).
- The bridge consists of 30 baroque statues of saints
- Over 500 meters long and nearly 10 meters wide, carried by 16 pillars and its weight is estimated at one hundred thousand tons
- The part of the famous Royal Way which goes from the Powder Gate to the Prague Castle

Competition for you!

Take a photo or shoot a video with an element of a bridge.

Use your imagination, let's be creative.

Let's go "bridging" together. Show us how you imagine the bridge, which connects people together, opens up new connections, or overcomes frontiers. Use your feelings and pass on your emotions to the #ICCAWorld community.

Very special and valuable prizes are awaiting the authors of the most interesting videos and photos.

Share your photos and videos on Twitter (@PragueConBureau) under hashtags #ICCAWorld and #BridgetoPrague and on Instagram @PragueConvention until 30. 4. 2017.

The winners will be announced at the ICCA booth at IMEX in Frankfurt.

Looking forward to seeing you in Prague!
In the town where the first stone of the famous Charles Bridge was placed 660 years ago. Let's celebrate together!
