This program includes a Battlefield Leadership Tour with Licensed Battlefield Guide, lunch, and transportation to and from the Wyndham to the battlefield.

- + Learn leadership lessons from a curriculum developed by battlefield historians, leadership development experts and business executives
- + Increase the ability to address conflict and lead through challenging situations
- + Build and develop senior leadership skills
- + Meet specific organizational challenges and prepare for future opportunities

Gettysburg Foundation's Leadership Program - What Participants Are Saying: "Please accept my heartfelt thanks for one of the best leadership education experiences of our lifetime ... The lessons we learned here will carry us through a lifetime of business challenges and make us a collectively better company."

Get inspired by our country's heroes of the past! Attendees must be 16 or older to attend. For more information about this program, visit: www.gettysburgfoundation.org/executive-leadership-program. Pre-registration required, seating is limited.

BATTLEFIELD TOUR - GETTYSBURG NATIONAL MILITARY PARK

$25.00 Per Person

SUNDAY JUNE 23, 2019

1:00 pm - 4:00 pm

Visit the Gettysburg Battlefield, famously known for three dramatic days in July 1863. The fields that surround the small town of Gettysburg are vast in their landscape and stories. But it is the 6,000 acre Civil War military park, dedicated to the soldiers who fought here, that so many come to visit.

Great for adults and children, a kid friendly guide will be available. Trip includes transportation to and from the battlefield, snacks and water are provided but lunch is on your own. Pre-registration required.

Please indicate registration and payment on the Convention Registration Form or online at www.paschoolbus.org
