

Rocky Mountain Blood Cancer Conference

Patient/Caregiver Track

Saturday, April 07, 2018

Hyatt Regency Aurora-Denver

13200 E 14th Pl, Aurora, CO 80011

Start	End	Agenda	Speaker
8:00 am	9:00 am	Registration, Exhibits & Breakfast
9:00am	9:30am	Welcome	Rebecca Russell Executive Director Rocky Mountain Chapter Jeffrey V. Matous, MD Medical Director Colorado Blood Cancer Institute Brad Haverkos MD, MPH, MS Assistant Professor University of Colorado Division of Hematology
9:30am	10:15am	Keynote Speaker: Caregivers Need Care Too	Kimberly Alexander Principal Consultant, KimCONNECTS
10:15am	10:30am	Break/Visit Exhibitors
10:30am	11:45am	Concurrent Morning Breakout Sessions
		1. Multiple Myeloma for Patients and Caregivers in 2018: What You Need to Know. A focus on myeloma disease course, how to interpret lab results, new therapies on the horizon, and managing treatment side effects.	Tomer Mark, MD, MSc Associate Professor of Medicine University of Colorado Anschutz Medical Campus
		2. Chronic Myeloid Leukemia: The Evolution of Treatment Paradigm	Alireza Eghtedar, MD Colorado Blood Cancer Institute Presbyterian/St. Luke's Hospital
		3. Acute Leukemias (AML/ALL) Disease Biology, Treatments and What You Should Know	Daniel A. Pollyea, MD, MS Associate Professor of Medicine Clinical Director of Leukemia Services Division of Hematology University of Colorado Cancer Center University of Colorado School of Medicine

		4. Aggressive Lymphomas: Intensive Treatments for a Curative Goal	Brad Haverkos MD, MPH, MS Assistant Professor University of Colorado Division of Hematology
		5. Forward Progress on the “Indolent” Lymphomas: A journey from Chemotherapy to Targeted Therapy	Michael Maris, MD Director of Research Colorado Blood Cancer Institute Presbyterian/St Luke’s Hospital
		6. Chronic Lymphocytic Leukemia (CLL): An Increasing Role For Novel Therapies	John Burke, MD Associate Chair US Oncology Hematology Research Program Rocky Mountain Cancer Centers The US Oncology Network
		7. Overview of Myeloproliferative Neoplasms (MPN)	Scott Kono, DO, MS Area Specialty Chief of Medical Oncology Kaiser Permanente
		8. Mantle Cell Lymphoma: Past, Present and Future	Michael Tees, MD, MPH Hematologist, Hematopoietic Cellular Transplant & Cellular Therapy (HCTCT) Co-Director, Lymphoma Service Colorado Blood Cancer Institute Presbyterian/St Luke’s Hospital
		9. Myelodysplastic Syndromes (MDS) 2018 Update on Diagnosis, Risk-Stratification and Management	Marcello Rotta, MD Co-Director of Leukemia Service Colorado Blood Cancer Institute Presbyterian/St Luke’s Hospital
11:45am	1:00 p.m.	Break/Visit Exhibitors/Open Discussion Lunch by Diagnosis a. Multiple Myeloma b. Non-Hodgkins Lymphoma c. Hodgkins Lymphoma d. Chronic Myeloid Leukemia (CML)/Myeloproliferative Neoplasms (MPN) e. Acute Myeloid Leukemia (AML) f. Acute Lymphoblastic Leukemia (ALL)
11:45 a.m.	1:00 p.m.	Waldenstrom Macroglobulinemia (WM) in 2018: An Overview and Update for Patients and Caregivers	Peter Forsberg, MD Assistant Professor University of Colorado School of Medicine Blood Disorders Center Anschutz Medical Campus

1:00pm	2:15pm	Concurrent Early Afternoon Breakout Sessions
		1. Survivorship: Beyond Cancer and Treatment. Defining Cancer Survivorship, Follow-Up and Surveillance, Wellness, Secondary Cancer, Late and Long Term Effects	Jill Trunecek, RN, ANP-BC Rocky Mountain Cancer Centers
		2. CAR-T Cell Therapy in the Treatment of Blood Cancers	Enkhee Purev, MD, PhD Assistant Professor Blood Disorder and Cell Therapy Center Department of Medicine University of Colorado Anschutz Medical Center Peter McSweeney MD Director of Cellular Therapy Colorado Blood Cancer Institute Presbyterian/St. Luke's Medical Center
		3. Post-Traumatic Growth: Strategies for Maximizing Emotional Recovery and Transformation through Cancer and into Survivorship	Andrea Maikovich-Fong, PhD, ABPP Clinical Health Psychologist and Behavioral Medicine Specialist Kaiser Permanente
2:15 pm	2:30pm	Break/Visit Exhibitors
2:30 pm	3:45pm	Concurrent Late Afternoon Breakout Sessions
		1. Survivorship: Beyond Cancer and Treatment. Defining Cancer Survivorship, Follow-Up and Surveillance, Wellness, Secondary Cancer, Late and Long-Term Effects	Jill Trunecek, RN, ANP-BC Rocky Mountain Cancer Centers
		2. Wellness Practices to Support Your Health and Healing	Sandy Priester, MBA, CHTP, RMT Co-Founder and Executive Director LifeSpark Cancer Resources Vicki Mackie Co-Founder and Executive Director of Sites and Insights Ban B. Wong, PhD Licensed Acupuncturist Diplomate in Acupuncture Diplomate in Chinese Herbology PhD in Oriental Medicine Tai Chi Instructor
		3. Cancer and the Outdoors	Epic Experience Live by Living
3:45pm		Conference Adjourns	