Keynote Presentation by:

Alex Sheen

Alex Sheen is the founder of Because I said I Would, a social movement and nonprofit dedicated to bettering humanity through promises made and kept. Sparked by the loss of his father, Alex and his organization send "promise cards" to anyone anywhere in the world at no cost. Alex is someone who truly honors commitment. He once walked over 240 miles across the entire state of Ohio in 10 days to fulfill a promise. Since his father's passing on September 4, 2012, because I said I would has sent over 4.47 million promise cards to over 150 countries. The promises written on these cards have made headlines around the world. His charitable projects and awareness campaigns have been featured on ABC World

News with Diane Sawyer, CBS Nightly News, Fox News, CNN, The Today Show, Good Morning America, NPR, The Los Angeles Times, and many other programs. He has also been featured on the cover of Spirit Magazine, honored as a Steve Harvey "Harvey's Hero" and was the closing TED speaker at TEDxUtica and TEDxYouth@Austin. Alex's efforts in social media were featured in BuzzFeed's "Most Important Viral Videos of 2013" and have made the #1 spot on the front page of Reddit.com over 10 times.

This keynote presentation takes place on Thursday, June 15 at 8:00 a.m. and is open to all attendees and exhibitors. Earn 1 CE hour for attending! Be sure to add this to your event registration!

Bridging the Gap

Bridging the Gap

This will be a session on teamwork focusing on “bridging the gap” between new professionals and seasoned hygienists.

Much has been discussed about the differences in the generations. At the core, we all have many of the same needs, but have been born into the world at different points in time, which shape and influence us. Join this interactive course to understand more about the generations, including late-breaking trends that will help shape how you interact with colleagues and patients in the future.

You will learn to:

- Understand the three stages of millennials and why their differences matter
- Become more aware and emotionally intelligent to those around you
- Understand communication styles that work best with different audiences

COR-NDHRA Research 101

COR-NDHRA Research 101

Research is a fundamental part of dental hygiene process of care. The National Dental Hygiene Research Agenda (NDHRA) is designed to focus dental hygiene research efforts and drive best practices by providing direction and evidence for clinicians. This program is for clinicians, students, educators and new researchers interested in promoting and supporting the growth of the profession, providing the best possible care to our patients, and robust education for our students. The course will highlight how the NDHRA can be used by all dental hygienists regardless of background and interest. Areas of discussion are:

- Best practices for incorporating into dental hygiene education
- Utilization by student dental hygienists at all levels
- Mentoring junior and new researchers
- Importance to clinicians and dental hygiene advocates

4:00 p.m. - 5:00 p.m.

Stories of Hygienists' Career Journeys

Stories of Hygienists' Career Journeys
