The Smart People in KVM and AV Technologies

KVM Australia was established in 1999 as a specialist importer and distributor of KVM (Keyboard Video Mouse) Technology, including but not limited to KVM Switches, KVM Extension Technology, and Digital Signage solutions, and Audio Video (AV) technologies.

KVM Australia is the Exclusive Australian and New Zealand Importers and Distributors for Adder technology (UK) and Guntermann and Drunk (Germany).

We also import and distribute products Icron Technology (Canada), Matrox (Canada).

As a commercial brand supplier for leading world class manufacturers such as Adder, G&D, Icron and Matrox to Australia and New Zealand, we are a recognised Defence supplier by Defence Material Organisation (DMO) NATO NCAGE number Z0FK9 (December 2008)

Our expertise about KVM and AV Technologies combined with high level access to these world class manufacturers enables us to provide Australian integrators and installers with sound technical advice from industry innovators and leaders regarding possible solutions which require KVM Technology or Extension Technology.

Our primary manufactures design and manufacture products specifically for the following Industry segments:

Air Traffic Control,
Audio Visual, (Video Distribution, Airports, Train stations, Govt buildings etc)
