- Interactive supply costs are estimated at $35 per volunteer
- Facility improvement supply costs are estimated at $45 per volunteer
- In addition to supplies, all projects will have a logistics donation, which includes the cost of any van or truck rental(s) to transport supplies, snacks, and water
- Transportation can be coordinated by Chicago Cares either through school buses or charter buses. The average bus can hold 44 volunteers
 - School buses are estimated at costing $450 per bus and during the school year can be late due to schedules/routes
 - Charter buses are typically $900 per bus and are with the company throughout the day
- Chicago Cares can coordinate a variety of lunch options and accommodate most dietary restrictions (vegetarian, vegan, and gluten free)
 - $9 per person is estimated for a boxed lunch from a national supplier (Potbelly, Panera, Subway, etc.) These lunches will include a sandwich or salad, chips, cookie, and a drink
 - $10 per lunch is estimated for a local vendor
 - When estimating lunches please remember to include a 10% increase in volunteer numbers to account for staff and walk on volunteers

[^]If a company is struggling with the cost of a Project Management donation, please speak with the Associate Director of Corporate Relations or CEO.

*Supply ranges were calculated by using the interactive supply costs for the min number and facility improvement costs for max number of volunteers

FIRST EMAIL

On January 25, GCM Grosvenor volunteers worked hard to serve Robeson High School, located in the Englewood neighborhood. Check out more information on this neighborhood by viewing the attached neighborhood guide.

Schools often serve as the center of community life and safe havens within communities, particularly those struggling with violence. The fresh coats of paint you provided to classrooms, new benches you built, and the canvas murals you created will brighten up the overall environment. According to The Center for Disease Control, the design of the school environment can reduce fear and increase safety by creating a warm and welcoming environment, fostering a sense of physical and social order, and sending positive messages to students.

Your support and service was greatly appreciated by the staff and students. On behalf of Chicago Cares, thank you! It was a pleasure serving alongside you all.

At Chicago Cares, we believe in continuous improvement. Will you take 5 minutes in the next week to fill out this survey? Your feedback will help us provide the best volunteer experiences possible. Even if you couldn't participate, we'd still like your feedback.

Thanks to the volunteers at Uptake, students at Cook Elementary School in Chicago's Auburn Gresham neighborhood know that there are adults committed to their success.

Thank you to the volunteers of Uptake!

On Monday, January 16, Uptake joined Chicago Cares in a day of service at Cook Elementary, a public school in Chicago's Auburn Gresham neighborhood on the Southwest Side.

Principal Narineh Gharashor and her staff are committed to the lives of their students. Cook's goals include: prioritizing safety and security; increasing attendance; increasing academic achievement; and strengthening the parent-teacher-school partnership.

Uptake volunteers participated in the following activities to help Cook further its goals of being a safe space where students have the opportunity to thrive:

- Made 5 fleece blankets which were distributed to seniors in the community
- Served lunch and facilitated a Martin Luther King, Jr. discussion with 17 seniors and veterans from the community
- Provided fresh coats of paint for three classrooms
- Created a domino mosaic to be hung in one of Cook's hallways, spreading MLK's message of justice and unity
- Cleaned and organized an old library to make it easier for students to access books

- Built three benches for students to have a place to read
- Created eight college themed canvas murals to inspire students to continue their education
- Created two canvas murals for St. Sabina

Thanks to your hard work, the lives of students and seniors in Auburn Gresham are brighter today.

But the work doesn't end here! In fact, this is only the beginning.

Contact us to learn about further partnership opportunities to support the community and school.

VOLUNTEER FEEDBACK

'It was a great way to help those in need'

Here's a sampling of feedback from volunteers about what they liked best about the day:

- "Going to a part of the city that I would have never gone to on my own along with being greeted by the kids from the school."
- "Connecting with a new community. Meeting the students and finding out what they are most interested in."
- "I enjoyed coming into contact with a community that I wouldn't ordinarily interact with. The morning presentation where the community sort of presented itself was really great."
- "I loved being able to work with the kids in the community. We had hilarious conversations and it was awesome to see them come in to volunteer on their day off."
- "It was a great way to help those in need! Those kids were a blast to hang out with and learn more about."
