

Quality 2019

Wednesday 23 January 2019

Carnegie Conference Centre, Halbeath Road, Dunfermline, Fife, KY11 8DY

Programme

0930 Registration and Coffee

1000 Welcome and Introductions

Ian McCallum, Quality Manager, New College Lanarkshire, Chair of College Development Network (CDN) Quality Development Network Steering Group

Ian McCallum will welcome delegates and provide a brief introduction to the event.

1005 Introductory Address

Steve Taylor, Vice Principal (People & Performance), Dundee and Angus College

Steve will speak about some of the issues and challenges facing quality within the sector and the Good to Great enhancement approach that Dundee and Angus College has adopted to seek to address these.

1025 How Good Is Our College (HGIOC) and Quality Arrangements

Andrew Brawley, HMI and Karen Corbett, HMI, Education Scotland and Dr Dee Bird, Assistant Director (Head of Learning & Quality) SFC

SFC/Education Scotland perspective on:

- Learning points for colleges from the experience of years 1 and 2
- Learning points for SFC and Education Scotland from years 1 and 2
- Examples of excellent practice identified within the sector.

@ColDevNet

www.facebook.com/collegedevelopmentnetwork

www.collegedevelopmentnetwork.ac.uk

- 1055 Workshop Session One - Workshop on HGIOC
Karen Corbett, Andrew Brawley and Dr Dee Bird
- Activity in groups on an aspect of implementation of HGIOC quality arrangements.
- 1130 Break
- 1145 Feedback on workshop activity
Karen Corbett, Andrew Brawley and Dr Dee Bird
- 1200 Workshop Session Two – Data and Quality
Kenny Wilson, Senior Policy/Analysis Officer (Data Collections), SFC
- Impacts on quality management stemming from variations in data recording and handling across the sector are explored in this interactive session.
- 1240 Lunch
- 1315 Learner Involvement in Quality Improvement
Eve Lewis, Director, sparqs, with representatives from across the sector
- A session led by sparqs with representatives from the sector. We will consider how developing the role of Students' Associations in self-evaluation activities and enhancement planning can improve their ability to become more strategically aligned to support addressing college priority areas and challenges.
- 1400 GDPR
Sandy Murray, Head of Curriculum and Teaching, CDN and Rob McDermott, Quality Manager, Forth Valley College
- A look at challenges facing quality teams due to the introduction of GDPR legislation and work that the CDN Quality Development Network Steering Group has undertaken.
- 1430 Professional Standards for Lecturers in Scotland's Colleges
Christine Calder, Professional Learning Course Leader, Dundee and Angus College and Bernadette McGuire, Consultant, CDN
- Implementing, monitoring and self-evaluating against the professional standards which were launched in November 2018.
- 1500 Thanks and Close
Ian McCallum

@ColDevNet

www.facebook.com/collegedevelopmentnetwork

www.collegedevelopmentnetwork.ac.uk