

Doing Research in Indigenous Communities

Sponsorship Packages

Your generous gift in support of this conference will:

- Demonstrate your support for culturally appropriate and responsible collaboration with and within indigenous communities.
- Advance our efforts to create meaningful conversations across stakeholders who are working with and within indigenous communities.
- Transform our work in indigenous communities to establish the highest level of responsible conduct in research.

Level 1 $250

- Your logo will appear on an acknowledgement page of the program agenda

Level 2 $750

- Your logo will appear on an acknowledgement page of the program agenda
- Your entity will be identified as sponsoring the networking reception with your logo in the agenda and online
- Booth/table available during the Thursday evening networking reception to interact with conference participants

Level 3 $1500

- Your logo will appear on an acknowledgement page of the program agenda
- Your entity will be identified as sponsoring the networking reception with your logo in the agenda and online
- Booth/table available during the Thursday evening networking reception to interact with conference participants
- Your entity will be identified as sponsoring the lunch plus verbal acknowledgement during the program

Travel awards

- Your gift of $100 - $500 will allow tribal community members to attend the conference; applicants will be competitively awarded reimbursements for travel expenses
- Acknowledgement within the conference program for your gift

All funds will be deposited with the ASU Foundation for A New American University, a nonprofit organization that exists to support ASU. Gifts in support of ASU are subject to foundation policies and fees. Due to the fair market value of benefits received, only payments in excess of fair market value may be considered a charitable contribution. Please consult your tax advisor regarding the deductibility of charitable contributions.