

Antero (Terry) Rivasplata

Terry Rivasplata is a technical director with ICF International, a consulting firm specializing in environmental planning and natural resource management. He specializes in CEQA compliance and general plan preparation. Before joining ICF International, Mr. Rivasplata was with the Governor's Office of Planning and Research (OPR) from 1985 to 1998, including a stint as the chief of the state clearinghouse.

Mr. Rivasplata has worked on a variety of projects as either project manager or CEQA advisor. These include CEQA-NEPA documents for transportation projects; EIRs for general plan updates in Monterey County, Davis, and Modesto; environmental documents for schools in Dixon, Livermore, and Watsonville, environmental documents for water supply projects, and redevelopment projects in the San Jose and Watsonville; NEPA documents for federal and local agencies; and the City of Modesto's Master EIR update. In addition, he is the editor of the quarterly "Environmental Assessor" for the Association of Environmental Professionals (AEP).

Mr. Rivasplata is a co-author of the 2011 update of the CEQA Deskbook published by Solano Press. While at OPR, he co-authored the 1998, 1990, and 1987 editions of General Plan Guidelines, as well being involved in drafting the 1998, 1997, and 1994 revisions to the CEQA Guidelines.

Before joining OPR, Mr. Rivasplata spent seven years as a planner for the Kern County Planning and Development Services Department. He also has worked for the City of Davis and County of Sacramento planning departments. Mr. Rivasplata is a member of the American Planning Association, American Institute of Certified Planners, and the AEP. He received a B.S. in environmental planning and management from the University of California, Davis.
