

AFIF 2013 – LESS THAN 1 WEEK TO GO!

You will be aware, from our regular updates, that there are a variety of topical sessions within the conference program which has been designed to cover many sectors of our industry and develop your management and marketing skills. Here is a brief re-cap of just some of the highlights:

Opening Session – Respected journalist and author Peter Hartcher will speak on “leadership, deficits and leadership deficits”;

ACCC – outlining the scope of their powers and methods to combat anti-competitive behaviour;

Air Cargo Security – the Federal Government is working with all industry stakeholders in a changing landscape to build a more secure air export supply chain, meaning changes for RACAs, their TSPs and clients;

Serious & Organised Crime – discussing the role of waterfront taskforces and focusing on ramifications for freight forwarders and customs brokers in reporting incidences of crime;

Marketing – to provide a roadmap to position your business as a “supplier of choice”;

CPD – sessions accredited for 9.5 points with more expected this week; and

Conference App - an exciting new initiative containing conference program, maps, sponsor information, note functionality and plenty more.

We are pleased to present the attached printable program and registration information. CLICK HERE to download the brochure.

Alternatively, full details can be found on the AFIF Conference website: www.afif.asn.au/conference with the ability to register online.

SO IF YOU HAVEN'T ALREADY...REGISTER NOW!

Your registration includes:

- All Sessions and documentation
- Refreshment breaks and lunch as outlined in the program
- Welcome Reception
- Conference Dinner
- GST

CLICK HERE TO REGISTER ONLINE

ACCOMMODATION

Accommodation is being offered at Rydges Lakeside (the conference venue). Rates start at $229 per room per night, however rooms at this rate are strictly limited. Hotel reservations can be made during the registration process.

There are a number of other accommodation options close to the conference venue. A list of suggested alternatives is included in the registration material and you are welcome to book your own choice of hotel.

If you would like a copy of the registration brochure emailed to you, or have any other questions about the conference, please contact the conference secretariat at:

Tel: 02 4973 6573

Email: afifconference@willorganise.com.au

Bookmark the AFIF 2013 Website and keep checking for updates: www.afif.asn.au/conference

Regards

AFIF2013 Conference Organising Committee

