

Programme: Wednesday 26 April 2017

Old Government Buildings, Victoria University of Wellington

8:00am - 11:00am	Registration desk open for pre-conference workshop delegates	OGB Common Room
9:00am - 10:30am	Pre-conference workshop: Teaching academic writing using a text bank of student disciplinary writing Presenter: Neil Matheson & Helen Basturkmen, University of Auckland Location: GBG04	Pre-conference workshop: Investigating the discourse and vocabulary of a disciplinary area: The case of carpentry Presenter: Jean Parkinson & Averil Coxhead, Victoria University of Wellington Location: GBG05
10:30am - 11:00am	Morning tea provided for workshop delegates	OGB Common Room
11:00am - 12:30pm	Pre-conference workshop: What is academic style and how can we help students develop a more meaningful understanding of it? Presenter: Christine Feak, University of Michigan Location: GBG04	Pre-conference workshop: Engaging with the city: How the language in the workplace project researches workplace discourse. Let's explore applications. Presenter: Janet Holmes, Victoria University of Wellington Location: GBG05
1:00pm - 7:00pm	Registration desk open	OGB Common Room
2:00pm	Conference Opening Deputy Vice-Chancellor Maori, Professor Rawinia Higgins, Victoria University of Wellington Conference convenor, Associate Professor Meredith Marra, Victoria University of Wellington	GBLT1
2:30pm - 3:30pm	Opening Keynote Speaker: Janet Holmes, Victoria University of Wellington "You're cooking us lunch!": Workplace norms and professional identity in New Zealand workplaces	GBLT1
3:30pm - 4:00pm	Afternoon tea	OGB Common Room
4:00pm - 4:10pm	Chris Candlin Symposium: Cynthia White, Massey University Sponsored by the School of Humanities, Massey University
4:10pm - 4:30pm	Winnie Cheng How to deepen our understanding of professional communication in English
4:30pm - 4:50pm	Stephen Moore To Sir with love: Recalling Chris Candlin the teacher
4:50pm - 5:00pm	Srikant Sarangi The communicative basis of professional expertise [via video]	GBLT1
5:00pm - 5:20pm	Alan Jones Chris Candlin's ongoing engagement with the concept of interdiscursivity
5:20pm - 5:40pm	Janet Holmes & Nicky Riddiford Research that works: Applying workplace research to assist new migrants
5:40pm - 6:10pm	Questions and concluding discussion
6:10pm - 7:30pm	Welcome Function Sponsored by Faculties of Humanities and Social Sciences and Education, Victoria University of Wellington	VicBooks Café, Rutherford House

Programme: Thursday 27 April 2017

Old Government Buildings, Victoria University of Wellington

8:00am - 5:30pm	Registration desk open				OGB Common Room
9:00am - 9:15am	Welcome				GBLT1
9:15am - 10:15am	Keynote Speaker: Associate Professor Helen Basturkmen, University of Auckland ESP teacher education needs				GBLT1
10:15am - 10:45am	Morning tea				OGB Common Room
	Room	GBLT1	GBLT2	GBLT3	GBLT4
10:45am - 11:15am		Professional communication Students' collaborative learning experiences in a university business communication course Connie Ng	Language for Vocational Purposes A pedagogical word list of Carpentry: Built through collaboration Averil Coxhead	English for academic purposes Collaborative threads in an EAP course: Voices from managers, teachers and students Ha Hoang, Cherie Connor & Angela Joe	Language for specific purposes Doing doctoral research in EAL: How effective is generic support? Morena Botelho de Magalhães & Sara Cotterall
11:15am - 11:20am	Break to move between sessions
11:20am - 11:50am		Professional communication Self-generated analogies to explain the unfamiliar in popular science writing Yin Ling Lui	Language for Vocational Purposes Putting yourself into your work: Written and visual expression of the personal Jean Parkinson	English for academic purposes Quantitative analysis of peer and self-assessment of academic presentations Gavin Brooks	Language for specific purposes Business English textbooks and general English textbooks: What's the difference? Cameron Romney
11:50am - 11:55am	Break to move between sessions
11:55am - 12:25pm		Professional communication Constructing professional competence in an engineering job interview Sophie Reissner-Roubicek	Language for Vocational Purposes Working around the words: Unpacking language learning in vocational training Emma McLaughlin	Teaching and learning for communication Employability and intercultural competence: The case of tertiary EFL in Vietnam Jonathan Newton	Language for specific purposes Implementing English-in-the-discipline: An engineering experience Jon S.Y. Hui
12:25pm - 12:30pm	Break to move between sessions
12:30pm - 1:00pm		Professional communication The language of international governmentality Derek Wallace	Language for Vocational Purposes Trades vocabulary in Pacific contexts: Tonga, Talanoa and corpus linguistics Averil Coxhead, Falakiko Tu'amoheloa & Jean Parkinson	English for academic purposes Integrating academic vocabulary into an EGAP course Peter Davidson	Language for specific purposes The emergence of business English in the Thai tertiary context Panithi Amatayakul
1:00pm - 2:00pm	Lunch				OGB Common Room
1:30pm	Succeeding in job interviews – a collaboration between the Ministry of Business, Innovation, and Employment and Victoria University of Wellington To be launched by Judi Altinkaya, National Manager Settlement and Nicky Riddiford, LALS/LWP

Programme: Thursday 27 April 2017 Cont...

Old Government Buildings, Victoria University of Wellington

Room	GBLT1	GBLT2	GBLT3	GBLT4
2:00pm - 2:30pm	Applied linguistics and professional practices Whose interests first? Telephone-based financial planning in action Stephen Moore	Language for specific purposes Making appeals appealing: Language use for political purposes Emma Kruse Vaai	Discipline specific language Rhetorical structures of Applied Linguistics and mechanical engineering research articles Thi Ngoc Phuong Le	Language for specific purposes Lexical diversity in English for traditional Chinese medical purposes Cailing Lu
2:30pm - 2:35pm Break to move between sessions
Room	GBLT1	GBLT2	GBLT3	GBLT4
2:35pm - 3:05pm	Applied linguistics and professional practices Practical relevance – linguistics research applied in government organisations Dana Skopal	Pre-service teacher training (Applied linguistics and professional practices) Pre-service teachers' multilingual identity in contested English-learning environment in Indonesia Siti Nur Aini	Language for specific purposes Spiegel im Spiegel: Teaching reflective writing in management education Martin McMorrow	Language for specific purposes Japanese scientists' English for research publication purposes Leigh McDowell
3:05pm - 3:35pm Afternoon tea OGB Common Room
3:35pm - 4:05pm	Applied linguistics and professional practices Political economy of language in Fiji Premila Devi	Pre-service teacher training (Language for specific purposes) Changes in a pre-service teacher' beliefs about ESP teachers' competence Anh Dang	English for academic purposes Exploring an integrated teaching learning and assessing framework Jing Huang	English for academic purposes Comparing face-to-face and computer-mediated collaborative writing in Malaysian EAP context Shih Min Loo
4:05pm - 4:10pm Break to move between sessions
4:10pm - 4:40pm	Language for specific purposes Polysemy and homonyms in specialized word lists Kevin Parent	Workplace communication Using research data to create a job interview resource for newcomers to New Zealand Nicky Riddiford	English for academic purposes Evaluative that constructions: Projecting evaluation in research articles from two contrasting disciplines Chanhee Kim	English for academic purposes Corpus study on impact of peer revision in academic writing Dora Wong
4:45pm - 5:30pm	AGM			GBLT1
5:30pm - 6:30pm	Delegate free time
6:30pm - 10:30pm	Conference Dinner Trade Kitchen, 10 Customhouse Quay, Wellington Entry by ticket only

Programme: Friday 28 April 2017

Old Government Buildings, Victoria University of Wellington

8:00am - 5:30pm Registration desk open OGB Common Room

9:00am - 9:15am Welcome GBLT1

9:15am - 10:15am Keynote Speaker: Dr Kazuyo Murata, Ryukoku University, Kyoto, Japan GBLT1
Taking sociolinguistic research on multi-stakeholder discussions into the real world

10:15am - 10:45am Morning tea OGB Common Room

Room	GBLT1	GBLT2	GBLT3	GBLT4
10:45am - 11:15am	Applied linguistics and professional practices International students' language socialisation in a NZ high school Behnam Soltani		English for academic purposes The state of the 'E' in EAP in an international school context Marianne	Discipline specific language Flowery language: Building a corpus for studying horticulture Patrick Coleman & Daryl Streat

11:15am - 11:20am Break to move between sessions

11:20am - 11:50am	Teaching and learning for communication Professional challenges in internationalisation: Demystifying concepts of western academia Jeannie Fletcher	Teaching and learning for communication Intercultural communicative language teaching in New Zealand secondary schools Juliet Kennedy	English for academic purposes Defining 'formality': Identifying the abstract demands of academic discourse Cassi Liardet & Sharyn Black	Language for specific purposes Developing research methodologies in English for specific purposes Christoph Hafner & Lindsay Miller
-------------------	--	--	--	--

11:50am - 11:55am Break to move between sessions

11:55am - 12:25pm	Applied linguistics and professional practices A corpus-driven analysis of luxury hotels' responses to online reviews Amy Suen & Phoebe Lin	Teaching and learning for communication Writing transitions to the workplace and back to school: A participant inquiry Ha Hoang	English for academic purposes Gaps in students' EAP reading skills at an international university Rachael Ruegg & Naeko Naganuma	Language for specific purposes Minister for mousetraps: Unparliamentary language in the New Zealand parliament Ruth Graham
-------------------	--	--	---	---

Programme: Friday 28 April 2017 Cont...

Old Government Buildings, Victoria University of Wellington

12:25pm - 1:10pm		Lunch			OGB Common Room
Room	GBLT1	GBLT2	GBLT3	GBLT4
1:10pm - 1:40pm	Language for specific purposes Teaching English for a specific discipline Mimi Nahariah Azwani Mohamed	Teaching and learning for communication Humor in the classroom: Insights from language learners Peter Neff		Language for specific purposes Concordances and concordance users: Models of concordance use in ESP Oliver Ballance
1:40pm - 1:45pm		Break to move between sessions
Room	GBLT1	GBLT2	GBLT3	GBLT4
1:45pm - 2:15pm	Language for specific purposes Cross-disciplinary variation of stance phraseologies in the abstract of research articles Jihua Dong	Teaching and learning for communication Managing register in workplace emails: A case of pedagogical neglect Stephen Bremner	English for academic purposes Sharing tools: School science and educational linguistics in Hong Kong Corinne Maxwell-Reid	English for academic purposes Mentoring by co-authoring in the natural sciences: Text and context Pascal Matzler
2:15pm - 2:20pm		Break to move to plenary session
2:20pm - 3:20pm	Keynote Speaker: Dr Christine Feak, University of Michigan Collaboration between disciplinary experts and ESP specialists on materials development: Making the most of separate, but equal expertise Sponsored by English Language Institute, Victoria University of Wellington				GBLT1
3:20pm - 3:35pm	Conference closing				GBLT1