

Mike Fitter

Mr. Fitter is a Senior Project Manager/Client Service Lead with Enercon Services, Inc. (ENERCON) and has more than 31 years of professional experience in engineering and geosciences. Mr. Fitter's professional experience includes business management and management of hundreds of projects involving Phase I and II Environmental Site Assessment; Brownfields assessments; design of soil and ground water remediation systems; implementation and management of remediation; interface with state agencies; environmental impact assessments; indoor air quality; and asbestos assessment, management planning and abatement.

Mr. Fitter has served on several state advisory committees including a term on the Oklahoma Storage Tank Advisory Council.

Mr. Fitter has a Bachelor of Science Degree in Petroleum Engineering from the University of Oklahoma and a Bachelor of Science Degree in Geology from Oklahoma State University. He is a Registered Professional Geologist in the states of Texas, Kansas and Arkansas and a Registered Environmental Professional with the National Registry of Environmental Professionals.