

2018 National IV-E Roundtable for Child Welfare Training & Education

Benson Hotel, Portland, Oregon

May 22nd- May 24th 2018

Tuesday, May 22nd, 2018

8:15 – 9:00 a.m. Registration / Breakfast (included) & Networking

9:00 – 9:30 a.m. Welcome and Opening Remarks
 Leona Leonard, Navajo Nation Child Welfare
 Laurie Price, Deputy Director, Oregon DHS Child Welfare
 Laura Nissen, Dean, Portland State University

9:30 – 10:30 a.m. Plenary: Oregon Child Welfare Partnership Story
 Panel of Oregon Partnership Leaders

10:45– 12:00 p.m. Breakout Sessions

Fiscal Emerging innovations in IV-E Support for Education & Training. (Don Schmid, private consultant)	Education Selection & Recruitment of an Ethnically Diverse Title IV-E Student Body. (Julie Gould, CSU Northridge; Michelle Rainer, Humboldt State University; Bruce Hartsell, CSU Bakersfield; Gabriella Fisher, San Francisco State University; Carolyn Shin, CalSWEC)	Training New Worker Training System Innovation: The Oregon Model. (Marty Lowrey, Portland State University; Karyn Schimmels, Oregon Department of Human Services, Child Welfare Partnership)	Admin & Governance Structures Navajo Nation Title IV-E Program. (Wilfred Yazzie, Leona Leonard, & Eric Gale Navajo Family Services Department)	Training/Education Using Instructional Technology to Increase Retention and Access. (Michelle Clinch, Angela Ang, Jeff Baker, Portland State University Child Welfare Partnership)
--	---	--	--	--

12:15 – 1:15 p.m. Lunch (provided with registration)

1:15 – 2:15 p.m. Plenary: Remembering our “Why” -- Voices of those who Most Benefit from our Programs

2:30 – 4:00 p.m. Breakout Sessions

Fiscal Statewide Training Plans; The Butterfly Effect & Sister State Agencies. (Andrea Hightower, Grants Manager Arizona Department of Child Safety)	Education Increasing Child Welfare Capacity through Title IV-E: The Navajo Nation & ASU Partnership. (Chris Sharp & Edwin Gonzalez-Santin, Arizona State University; representatives from the Navajo Nation)	Training Supportive Supervision in Urban Public Child Welfare & the African-Centered Paradigm. (Charmeika A. Lewis & Sapphire Boone, Morgan State)	Admin & Governance Structures Best Practices in Training: Virginia’s Training System Assessment. (Judy Gundy, Virginia DSS; Lara Bruce & Charmaine Brittain, Butler Institute at University of Denver)	Evaluation Views on Workplace Culture & Climate (Dr. Michael Biehl, CalSWEC) Preparing Child Welfare Practitioners. (Adria Johnson, Kentucky Department for Community Services, Austin Griffiths, Western Kentucky University)	Training Meeting the Needs of Caregivers (Michael Tyers & Kathy Brennan, University of Washington.)/ Children Without Placement: Facilitating Safe Alternatives. (Erica Balderrama, Candyce Berger, & Virginia Martinez, University of Texas El Paso)
--	--	--	--	---	---

4:00 – 4:30 p.m. Closing Remarks for the Day

5:00 – 7:00 p.m. Networking Reception- Crystal Room (Hosted Hors d’oeuvres & Cash Bar)
 Hosted by Portland State University & Oregon Department of Human Services
 Rev 5-21-18

2018 National IV-E Roundtable for Child Welfare Training & Education

Benson Hotel, Portland, Oregon

May 22nd- May 24th 2018

Wednesday, May 23rd, 2018

8:15 – 9:00 a.m. Breakfast (included) & Networking

9:00 – 10:30 a.m. Plenary: Federal Child Welfare Policy and Funding ... an Evolutionary Perspective
JooYeun Chang, Managing Director, Casey Family Programs & former Commissioner, Children's Bureau

10:45– 12:00 p.m. Breakout Session

Fiscal	Education	Training/Education	Evaluation	Training	Administration & Governance
Managing Title IV-E Fiscal Claiming Practices. (Kay Casey, Public Consulting Group; Deborah Whitley, Georgia State University & Georgia Collaboration)	The Future is Now! Child Welfare Stipends & Online Education. (Lara Bruce, University of Denver; Kate Trujillo, Metropolitan State University)	Educating Students to Work with Children whose Parents have been Deported. (Monica Montoya & Maria Gurrola, Dr. Megan Finno-Velasquez, New Mexico State University)	In Plain View but Overlooked: The Influence of Supervisory Work Unit on CW Retention & Well-being. (Jean Kruzich, Partners for Our Children University of Washington; Forest Jacobson, Area Administrator, Washington State Children's Administration)	You're Hired! Building and Cultivating a Successful Consultant Trainer Program. (Tiffany Riccardelli, Theresa McCutcheon, Narina Parrish, Milady Murillo, Rutgers)	Virginia's re-established stipend program: Developing partnerships with local agencies to serve a diverse state. (Em Parente & Bethany Robinson, Virginia Department of Social Services)

12:15 – 1:15 p.m. Lunch (included in registration)

1:15 – 2:15 p.m. Plenary: Tribal IV-E Training and Partnerships
Jack Trope, Senior Director Casey Family Programs, Indian Child Welfare Programs
Andrea Smith, Attorney, Children & Family Service, Port Gable S'Klallam Tribe

2:30 – 4:00 p.m. Breakout Sessions

Education	Training	Training	Admin & Governance	Evaluation	Training
Utah State University/DCSF Field Education Partnership. (Derrik, Tollefson & Diane Calloway-Graham, Utah State University)	Oregon Child Welfare Partnership –Using Simulation Lab & Portfolios in new worker training (Kirstin O'Dell & Jeffrey Asprocolas, Portland State University)	Walking in your Shoes: Strengthening Relationships Between CPS & Foster Parents (Erica Balderrama & Kathryn Schmidt, University of Texas at El Paso)	The Alliance for Child Welfare Excellence-WA State IV-E Partnership. (Ben de Haan, Partners for Our Children, University of Washington)	Public Child Welfare Supervisors: The Key to Reducing Workforce Turnover. (Adria Johnson, Commissioner Kentucky Department for Community based Services; Austin Griffiths, & Patricia Desrosiers, Western Kentucky University,)	Trauma Informed Care Development in Indian Country; An act of Resilience (Art Martinez, Capacity Building Center for Tribes Center for Native Child & Family Resilience)

4:00 – 4:30 p.m. Closing Remarks for the day

2018 National IV-E Roundtable for Child Welfare Training & Education

Benson Hotel, Portland, Oregon

May 22nd- May 24th 2018

Thursday, May 24th, 2018

8:15 – 9:00 a.m.

Breakfast (included) & Networking

9:00 – 10:15 a.m.

Breakout Sessions

Training Redesign of Washington State’s Regional CORE Training. (Alissa Copland & Kathy Brennan, Alliance for Child Welfare Excellence & Partners for our Children, Washington State)	Education The Un-Workshop: A skilled Child Welfare Workforce. (Travis Cronin, California State University, Fresno)	Training Cultural Humility: Praxis in Child Welfare. (Christina Feliciano, UC Berkeley; Christine Scudder, San Francisco State University)	Admin & Governance Strengthening a Title IV-E Stipend Program (Ruth Weinzettle & Corie Hebert, NW State University of Louisiana)/ Structuring Collaboration: Creating a System that Delivers. Kate Trujillo-Metropolitan State University; Lara Bruce Butler Institute, & Liz Huffman, Jefferson County Human Services	Training Youth Thrive: Using Training & Workforce Development to Improve Child Welfare Practice. (Martha Raimon & Lisa Primus, Center for the Study of Social Policy)	Education The Theory Literacy Project- Putting it into Practice. (Cheryl A. Whittle, CSU Fresno & Gary Kupfer, Tulare County Child Welfare Services)
---	--	--	---	---	--

10:30 – 12:00 p.m.

Closing Plenary & Welcome from Next Year’s Host.
New Jersey Masters Child Welfare Education Program
Dawn Konrady, Director, Stockton University