

Mike Sheriff

Superintendent Generation Deployment and Planner, Oklahoma Gas & Electric

Mike Sheriff graduated from Oklahoma State University with a Bachelor of Science in Electrical Engineering. He earned a Master of Business Administration with High Honor from Oklahoma City University. He has worked thirty-eight years for OG&E for in various capacities in the Power Delivery, Corporate Marketing, Business Intelligence, Corporate Planning and Power Supply business lines. Mike has worked in a broad range of departments within OG&E including Power Delivery Corporate Marketing, Corporate Planning and Power Supply. Over the last several years Mr. Sheriff has served as project manager and/or lead negotiator on various renewable energy projects totaling almost $1 Billion for OG&E Electric Services. Presently his area of work involves him in developing long-term generation strategy for OG&E and being technically proficient on all type of new generation technology, both fossil fuel and renewable.. Mike has provided testimony as an expert witness Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, Oklahoma Corporation Commission, and District Court.

Mike is a Licensed Professional Engineer in Oklahoma and Arkansas, a certified Project Management Professional, a President Elect of the Oklahoma Renewable Energy Council, a member of Wind Turbine Technology Academic Program Advisory Committee for OSU-OKC, and a Senior Member of Institute of Electrical and Electronic Engineers.

Mike is a Life member of the Oklahoma Historical Society, a member of the Stand Waite Society and Oklahoma Civil War Round Table. He is a living history docent portraying a Civil War soldier or a US Deputy Marshal in the time period of 1860s to 1900s.

Mike is married to Sherrel Sheriff, live in Norman, and they have three children, and three grandchildren.