

Drought, James, F., P.H., is a Vice President and Principal Hydrogeologist with Shaw Environmental, Inc. (Shaw) in the Milwaukee, Wisconsin office. Mr. Drought has over 20 years of professional consulting experience in Fixed-Price Remediation and Liability Transfer Services, Brownfield Redevelopment, and Litigation Support. Mr. Drought received a Master of Science Degree in Contaminant Hydrogeology from the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee, and a Bachelor of Science Degree in Physical Geography and Biology from Carroll College in Waukesha, Wisconsin. Mr. Drought also serves as an Associate Faculty Member in the Environmental Engineering Department at the Milwaukee School of Engineering (MSOE) in Milwaukee, Wisconsin.