September 10-12, 2018
Caesars Palace
Las Vegas, Nevada, USA

NOKIA

Join us!

Nokia is pleased to announce the 12th annual SRExperts Americas Convention which is a private, by invitation-only event designed to help you leverage your investment in the Nokia IP Routing portfolio by providing product updates, training and a new product exhibition. Original live demonstrations prepared by our engineering and product management teams, featuring state-of-the-art IP Routing solutions, will provide you with insight in the IP evolution.

If you are an IP expert involved in the strategic planning, network design, portfolio management, new services implementation or feature testing, then this is an ideal event for you. Last year, close to 400 representatives from fixed services providers, mobile operators, cable operators, utilities, public transportation organizations and public services joined us for this world-class education and training event.

We look forward to seeing you in Las Vegas!

Networking Evening Event

Tuesday,
September 11
7:00 pm - 10:00 pm

You are invited to join us for an evening of networking and fun at Brooklyn Bowl!

We will depart on foot from the hotel at 7:00 pm and after a short 5-min walk, we will arrive at the venue. Located at The LINQ, the open-air district in the center of The Strip, Brooklyn Bowl is a multi-dimensional space boasting 32 lanes of bowling, 6 on-site bars, and food curated by the world-renowned Blue Ribbon Restaurants. Not into bowling? There will be plenty of other activities or you can just relax in one of the large leather Chesterfield sofas. Those wanting to catch some fresh Las Vegas air, can relax on the patio overlooking the LINQ.
