

MARIELLE J. BOORTZ

Ms. Boortz (Marielle) has been employed by Chevron Corporation, or a subsidiary of Chevron Corporation, for over 30 years and has had various assignments in the areas of process engineering, environmental affairs, emergency preparedness and response, and public and government affairs. In her current position as Team Leader – EMC PGPA, she coordinates the provision of public and government affairs services to Chevron Environmental Management Company.

Her public and government affairs responsibilities and experience has included issues management, media relations, communications, state and local government relations, and community engagement. She has also represented Chevron on a variety of business organization and non-profit agency boards.

Ms. Boortz (Marielle) graduated from Texas A& M University with a BS Chemical Engineering.