

PARTNERS' PROGRAMME July 2019

DEAR DELEGATE,

We look forward to welcoming you to the 65th Congress of the South African Orthopaedic Association in Durban from 02 – 06 September 2019.

Please note the congress format for the week:

MONDAY 2 SEPTEMBER – full day congress and Cocktail/Networking Function

TUESDAY 3 SEPTEMBER – full day congress and free evening

WEDNESDAY 4 SEPTEMBER – full day congress and Congress Banquet

THURSDAY 5 SEPTEMBER – full day congress and free evening

FRIDAY 6 SEPTEMBER – congress day (no Partners' Programme)

We hope that the week's programme will interest and inspire you to enjoy some of the delights that Durban/Ethekekini has to offer, as well as offer you time to relax and enjoy the company of the other participants.

A BRIEF OVERVIEW OF WHAT YOU CAN EXPECT FOR THE WEEK:

MONDAY 2 SEPTEMBER 2019 (FULL DAY)

Painting workshop with Kim Pereira (local Durban based artist) at Mitchell park on the Berea, followed by a light lunch at the delightful Blue Zoo restaurant.

You will feel inspired by the shady trees and the rich, colourful flowerbeds lining the park.

TIMING: 09h30 – approximately 15h30 (we depart from the ICC after the opening ceremony).

DRESS CODE: Casual with comfortable shoes.

COST: R690 per person includes the workshop and lunch, excludes drinks (drinks for your own account).

BOOKINGS: Please remember to make your bookings on the online delegate registration form.

TUESDAY 3 SEPTEMBER 2019 (FULL DAY)

Today you will enjoy an Indian themed cooking course with Gecko Culinary School based in a stunning setting at the Breakers resort in Umhlanga Rocks, followed by a stroll along the Boardwalk.

"Our intimate venue is a relaxing and informal space... perfect for exploring creativity or learning new culinary skills".

TIMING: 09h00 – approximately 15h00.
