Dear Friends,

On behalf of the 28th District of California, I would like to wish you success on the inaugural SAG-AFTRA Convention.

Last year's merger of Screen Actors Guild and the American Federation of Television and Radio Artists combined two venerable organizations that fought for years to obtain and enforce protections for performers. Now, the newly formed SAG-AFTRA will continue to advance the issues of importance of to the more than 165,000 actors, announcers, broadcasters, journalists, dancers, DJs, news writers, news editors, program hosts, puppeteers, recording artists, singers, stunt performers, voiceover artists and other media professionals that it represents.

In an era where working men and women increasingly struggle to make ends meet, unions are crucial to protect the American worker. Strong advocates like SAG-AFTRA are a necessity to protect the rights and well-being of artists across the country and around the world.

Again, I congratulate you and send my best wishes for a successful and prosperous convention.

Sincerely,
