

Richard W Luedecke

Vice President Environment, Health and Safety

Luedecke, holds the position of vice president Environment, Health and Safety for Devon Energy. Luedecke joined Devon in 1982 with the acquisition of Mitchell Energy Corporation. He began his professional career in 1982 with Mitchell Energy and held positions in Houston, Fort Worth, Bridgeport, and College Station, Texas, and was previously vice president of Midstream operations in the Barnett Shale before taking on his current VP EHS role in 2009 in Oklahoma City. Luedecke holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Natural Gas Engineering from Texas A & M Kingsville University. He is a registered professional engineer within the State of Texas.