

europaean congenital cytomegalovirus initiative

2016

24th - 26th APRIL 2016

VENICE

www.cmv2016.eu

Preliminary Program

July 14th, 2015

European Congenital Cytomegalovirus Initiative

April, 24th – 26th, 2016

San Servolo, Venice

european congenital cytomegalovirus initiative

2016

24th - 26th APRIL 2016

VENICE

www.cmv2016.eu

Sunday, April 24th

- Congenital CMV in Europe
- Adaptive immunity
- CMV vaccine
- Growing up with congenital CMV

europaean congenital cytomegalovirus initiative

2016

24th - 26th APRIL 2016

VENICE

www.cmv2016.eu

Monday April 25th

Can we do better than (not) screening in pregnancy?

- Revisiting the screening dilemma
- Preventing primary infection in pregnancy

The challenge of non-primary infections

- Public health impact
- Diagnosis and management

CMV in the fetus

- Prognosis of an infected fetus at 20 weeks
- Therapeutic options for infected fetuses
- Basic science developments and opportunities for translational research
- Sequencing data
- Innate immunity
- Brain pathology and immunological interactions

europaean congenital cytomegalovirus initiative

2016

24th - 26th APRIL 2016

VENICE

www.cmv2016.eu

Tuesday April 26th

CMV in the newborn and beyond

- Options for neonatal CMV screening
- The current evidence for neonatal treatment
- To treat or not to treat (CMV outside the newborn period)

Collaborative future

- Lessons from HIV (PENTA-ID)
- Biobanks
- European Registries
- Call for interested parties and bid for collaboration.

Conclusions and adjourn