

The music and dance culture of the Orff Schulwerk

In this session we will look at the key aspects of creating a music community in our schools that plays, sings and dances together. Drawing from an international repertoire of songs and musical materials, we will explore, improvise, compose and create our own music based on the pedagogical principles of the Orff Schulwerk.

Full Day- 17th November 2016

Presenter- Sofia Lopez