

Civil Rights of Audience Written Assessment
The Law Society of Scotland
Thursday 10 March 2016

9:15am- 9:45am	Registration (Please arrive by 9:45am at the latest for a prompt start)
10:00am – 5:30pm	Written Assessment Papers

The assessment will consist of three papers: a summons, a defence and a minute of amendment. It will be open book exam conditions, so books of styles (unannotated) can be brought in.

Candidates will be given all three papers at once. It is up to candidates to work their way through the papers. There is no set time restriction (although the day will finish for 5:30pm). Candidates can use as much or little time as is needed.

Lunch will not be provided. It is up to candidates if they wish to work straight through, or wish to bring a lunch to eat at their desk.

Tea, coffee and biscuits will be provided. Comfort breaks may be taken throughout the day as required.
