

Industry Updates - NUOG

Howard LeCompte

Principal Technical Expert
DTE Energy
734-586-5159
lecompeh@dteenergy.com

Biography

Howard T. LeCompte, III is Principal Technical Expert in the Material Engineering for DTE Electric, Fermi Nuclear Power Station. Mr. LeCompte has BS in Engineering Technology and a MS in Quality Management from Eastern Michigan University. With over 36 years of experience in the Nuclear Industry, he has held various positions including:

- Fermi's Project Manager for In-Vessel Inspection,
 - Fermi's Procurement Engineering Program Manager,
 - Fermi's Obsolescence Program Manager,
 - USA Obsolescence Task Team Chairman,
 - RAPID Steering Committee Member and
 - Nuclear Utility Obsolescence Group (NUOG) Chairman
-

Abstract – Industry Update – NUOG

The NUOG Update will provide the attendees with a current picture of all the Projects and Activities the organization is current focused on. Those Projects include alignment with our Industry partners, improved Industry Collaborations, Obsolescence Reduction strategies, and Component based evaluation. This presentation will be both informative and beneficial to support Continual Improvements to your Programs and Processes.