

David Buttolph
Brookside Mezzanine Partners

David is a Managing Partner, Founder and Co-Manager of Brookside Mezzanine Partners. Prior to founding Brookside Mezzanine Partners in 2001, he was a Partner of two mezzanine investment funds at Canterbury Capital Partners. David also served as a Senior Vice President at LaSalle Business Credit, Inc, a District Manager/Vice President of Barclays Business Credit, Inc., and began his banking career at Bank Boston. David is a graduate of Boston University and received his Masters in Business Administration from Suffolk University. He has served as an Adjunct Lecturer on Mergers, Acquisitions and Buyouts at the Fordham University Graduate School of Business.