TECH-EX

Future Fundamentals provides opportunity to examine the challenges and opportunities that technology and disruption presents. For the first time, Universities Australia brings you Tech-EX – a technology focussed exhibition providing opportunity to demonstrate exciting and critical technologies, and present new and innovative ideas on the application of technology to the higher education sector.

The Tech-EX stage features a line-up of fantastic speakers including

- Scott Rigby, Head of Digital Transformation APAC, Adobe
- Ray Fleming, Education Industry Lead, Microsoft Australia
- James Oakley, Head of Product Management APAC, Tribal Group
- and many more

Senator the Hon Simon Birmingham, Minister for Education and Training will also be delivering the Ministerial Address on the Tech-EX stage during afternoon tea at 3:30pm on Wednesday 28 February.
