What is Villanova in the Valley?

The Villanova in the Valley Program is an opportunity for Villanova University students from all colleges at both the undergraduate and graduate level to immerse themselves in the innovative and entrepreneurial ecosystem of Silicon Valley.

The Innovation, Creativity and Entrepreneurship (ICE) Institute at Villanova seeks to give students across various academic disciplines an opportunity to share their knowledge and experience through creative problem-solving. Students will meet and network with Villanovans working in the Valley, as well as numerous others who help the Valley run.

Through this experience, we look to learn more about the issues and obstacles facing some of the most innovative companies in the world and how they address these challenges in a creative and collaborative manner.
