

William Sanders
Polsinelli PC

Through nearly 30 years of practicing law, Bill has developed broad tax experience in corporate, partnership, limited liability company, complex business transactions, and workout and bankruptcy issues. As chairman of the firm's tax practice group and a licensed CPA in Missouri, Bill's clients range from Fortune 100 companies to family-owned and tax-exempt organizations. He regularly represents clients nationwide before the Internal Revenue Service at all levels including audits, the Appeals Division and in court. Bill also represents clients in implementing tax-advantaged structures for all types of business transactions, including: complex mergers and acquisitions; real estate and limited liability/partnership transactions; joint ventures; workouts in and outside of bankruptcy; and business succession and wealth planning matters. He has worked extensively on tax matters in the Commercial Mortgage Backed Securities area relating to Real Estate Mortgage Investment Conduits (REMIC) and other real estate-based investment pools and has been involved in drafting industry-related legislative and regulatory changes to REMIC rules.
