

Frequently Asked Questions

Who should attend the Symposium?

We encourage active duty personnel (who are planning, or in the process of, transition), reservists, veterans, military spouses, Student Veteran, and corporate employee Veterans to attend the Symposium. The panels will be dual-g geared to address transitioning challenges for veterans as well as hiring and retention challenges for companies.

How much does it cost to attend the Symposium?

Zero. There is no cost for anyone to register for or attend the Symposium.

What is the attire?

The attire for the day is business dress or equivalent service uniform for service members who wish to attend in uniform. Note: There will be prospective employers present so if you plan on speaking with them, you should consider dressing as you would for an interview.

How do I provide my resume to VOWS companies?

While VOWS companies will not be collecting resumes at the Symposium, you can email your resume to: vowstalent@bobwoodrufffoundation.org. Representatives of VOWS companies can view this resume depository throughout the year and are notified of new uploads. Also, please bring several (5) hard copies of your resume to the event.

What do I need to bring to the Symposium?

If you are a veteran or military spouse and want to have your resume reviewed, please bring a hard copy with you. If you plan to participate in the LinkedIn session, please have a profile created and bring your mobile device with you. You may also want to bring business cards.

What is the best subway and bus stop?

Subway

The closest elevator-accessible subway station is 34 St-Hudson Yards (7 train). 34 St-Penn Station (1, 2, and 3 trains) and 34 St-Penn Station (A, C, and E trains) also offer elevator access.

Bus

The bus lines with stops closest to The Shed include the M11 along 10th Avenue, the M12 along 11th Avenue, and the M34 SBS, which provides select bus service to Hudson Yards along 34th Street.

Is there parking available?

There are two parking garages in close proximity to The Shed on West 30th Street between 10th and 11th Avenues. One is on the north side of the block, beneath Hudson Yards. An additional garage is located across the street from The Shed at 552 West 30th Street. There is no parking provided specifically for this event.

Is the Symposium space wheelchair accessible?

Yes, The Shed's 30th Street and Hudson Yards Public Square entrances are accessible and staff can direct you to the nearest elevator. The Shed itself is accessible throughout the building. The registration page contains a drop down to alert us to any accessibility or participation concerns you may have.

Will lunch be served?

Box lunches will be provided. The registration page contains drop downs for alerting us to any dietary needs. We will do our best to accommodate dietary needs.
