

Edinburgh Tours

Tour Option 1 – Royal Mile Walking Tour

The best way to explore Edinburgh is by foot, where buses can't take you and where books don't guide you, that's where the City's stories lie, down the Closes, Wynds, Courtyards and Homes of Old Edinburgh. We'll be taking delegates to see tucked away sites and telling them the tales of the City. This is a great way to hear about the culture, crime, politics and people of Scotland's capital. The tour in brief:

- From the entrance to Edinburgh Castle (a tour of Castle not included in this tour)
- Down the Royal Mile to hear about all the deepest darkest secrets
- A chance to see the Scottish Parliament Offices
- Come up close to the Palace of Holyrood House (a tour of House not included)

Tour Option 5 – Scottish Borders Tour – Full Day

From the rolling hills and moorland in the west to the gentle valleys and picturesque Berwickshire coastline in the east, it is easy to see why Sir Walter Scott was so enamoured with this peaceful region that he chose to build his beloved house, Abbotsford here. The Scottish Borders has a colourful past which belies its serene landscape. The many stately homes, castles and four magnificent abbeys are testament to its rich and occasionally turbulent history. The region's picturesque rural setting and unspoilt coastline means that local chefs don't have to look far for sourcing tantalisingly fresh fruit and vegetables from nearby farms, succulent meats from locally-reared livestock and freshly-caught seafood with being the land of food and drink.

Begin your day by meeting your guide at Edinburgh Waverley Station where you will take the train on the 'New Borders Railway' to Tweedbank where you will be collected by a private transfer.

Your tour will take you to the following fantastic places for a day out to remember.

1. Melrose - The picturesque town of Melrose is located next to the Eildon Hills and is the birthplace of Rugby Sevens where you will have time for a walk around this market town, have a coffee and a tour of the Abbey.
2. Your guide will then take you aboard the transfer passing by one of the Scottish Borders best views - Scott's View refers to a viewpoint in overlooking the valley of the River Tweed, which is reputed to be one of the favourite views of Sir Walter Scott. Fantastic Photo opportunity.
3. Born in the Borders is an extraordinary new visitor centre located next to the Scottish Borders Brewery. Set on the banks of the River Teviot, it brings together the best of everything that is grown, made, spun, produced, cooked and created in the area. With a food and drink shop, a goods and gifts shop, a stunning cafe and restaurant, riverside walks, picnic spots and brewery tours, there's no better way to discover the incredible wealth of products and goods our amazing region has to offer. When you arrive lunch will be served and you will then have the opportunity to explore, shop, have a tour and tasting at the Brewery itself.
4. Back aboard the bus to the Scottish Borders landmark Sir Walter Scott's Abbotsford – it remains today as one of the most famous houses in the world, it reflects, almost as no other place, the mind, enthusiasms and preoccupations of the man who built it. Enjoy a tour of the house and visitor centre followed by an afternoon tea at the Ochiltrees restaurant before departing back to Tweedbank for your journey back to Edinburgh.

Duration: 8 hours

Price Per Person: £137.55

Minimum numbers: 8 pax

Includes: Tour Guide, Return Train Ticket, Private transfer for the entire tour, Admission and Audio for Melrose Abbey & Abbotsford House, 2 Course lunch with coffee, tasting and tour at Born in the Borders & Brewery, Afternoon tea at Abbotsford House.
