

*Introduction to U4 Anti-Corruption Resource
Centre*

Workshop on Corruption Risks and Anti-Corruption Strategies in Climate Aid Financing

Manila, Philippines– 25 to 27 May 2015

Workshop Facilitators

- Aled Williams, U4 Senior Adviser in Natural Resource Management
- Kendra Dupuy, U4 Adviser in Natural Resource Management

Workshop objectives

1. Develop a common and general understanding of climate financial flows.
2. Develop a common understanding of corruption risks, causes, and consequences in climate financial flows and uses, with reference to natural resource management.
3. Examine existing and potential anti-corruption strategies to mitigate corruption risks in climate financing and in natural resource management.
4. Formulate concrete recommendations for how to mitigate corruption risks in the flows of climate financing to, and within, the Philippines.

Agenda overview

TODAY - Day 1 (Monday)

- Introduction to U4
- Overview of climate aid financing: trends & patterns

Agenda overview

TOMORROW – Day 2 (Tuesday)

- Status of climate finance in Philippines
- Corruption risks in climate finance and in natural resource management – in general, and specifically in the Philippines
- Group work and discussion

Agenda overview

DAY 3 – Wednesday)

- Anti-corruption measures in climate finance
- International standards and best practices for adi flows, revenue transfers, and natural resource management
- Gaps, measures, and mainstreaming anti-corruption in Philippines climate finance
- Group work and discussion

Introductions

Briefly let us know..

...your name

...your affiliation, role

...one expectation

Anti-Corruption Resource Centre

www.U4.no

CMI

CHR.
MICHELSEN
INSTITUTE